

CHS CAPSS Superintendent Student Awards

Ava Kuhnly

Ava Kuhnly's dedication to the high school and greater communities makes her the perfect candidate for the Connecticut Association of Public School Superintendents' Award. Ava is a student who goes above and beyond as an active contributing student. Ava is the president of CHS's Best Buddies Club. One of her greatest strengths is her organizational skills, which serve her well when planning events. She is also very personable when interacting with others, this shows in her authentic kind words and actions towards community members. She is also a student mentor through the partnership program with Coventry Youth Services. In this role she advises a younger student from one of our local elementary schools. In addition to this, Ava works part time at the local pre-school. She does all of this while also maintaining great grades. Ava is a student who all teachers enjoy having in class as she is trustworthy, hardworking, and kind. Ava is most deserving of the CAPSS award.

Dylan Patrick

Dylan Patrick's service to his community throughout high school makes him a strong candidate for the Connecticut Association of School Superintendents' Award. For the past 12 years, he has been involved with the Boy Scouts and has dedicated countless hours of community service through this program. He is currently earning his Eagle Scout Meritorious Badge. In this role, Dylan will be leading a project to install several handicap ramps at the Rockville Elks Lodge. In addition, he participated in a hiking excursion along the pacific coast trail in California with several of his troop members. His strong leadership skills led him to be nominated to attend the American Legion Boys State program at Eastern Connecticut State University. Through this program, he learned how state and municipal governments operate by running a mock town where mock elections and legislation took place. He has also participated in baseball, indoor track and senior class activities at Coventry High School. Dylan is an incredibly bright, kind and outgoing student who is most deserving of the CAPSS award.
